What we are working on

Reading: Readers continued to work on understanding different points of view including 1st, 2nd, and 3rd person by reading the book Stellaluna.

Skills: In spelling students learned to recognize and use different long o patterns.

Math: Students continued to explore different numbers by comparing numbers using <, >, and =. Students also put numbers in order by using different forms of the numbers.

Writing: Students worked on summarizing stories, using irregular verbs, as well as writing a short story using a plot from a mentor text.

Social Studies: students worked together to identify the characteristics of different communities.
