What we are working on

Reading: Students continued to learn to identify the central message or theme of a text. They can ask what the main character learned or what the author is trying to teach the reader to help identify theme. We also worked on using context clues to infer new vocabulary.

Skills: Students learned to recognize and use "oo" patterns.

Math: Students continued to work on adding and subtracting multi-digit numbers. Students also reviewed different strategies for solving multi-step word problems.

Writing: This week we focused in on retelling and summarizing fairy tales. This will help prepare us for writing our own fairytales.

Science/Social Studies: We finished up our plant unit and started our next social studies unit around renewable resources.
