Room 213

What we are working on

Reading: Students read a nonfiction and fiction text to compare and contrast the most important points presented by two texts on the same topic.

Skills: Students recognized and spelled words using r-controlled vowel patterns (-or).

Writing: Writers researched a person using three or more sources, narrow the topic to a position, and supported their position with 2-3 written paragraphs.

Math: Students completed Module 5 and showed their understanding on the assessment. We then moved into Module 6 building the conceptual foundations for multiplication and division.

Science/Social Studies: Students finished their brochures of their Colorado attraction and shared them with their classmates.

Homework

Due: Wednesday, 3/23

Reading Logs: Reading Logs are due: Monday, 4/4

Students should continue to read and visit the AR website to practice Math Facts in a Flash...

Spelling:

mother father sister brother water after other better over never under flower that shop

Challenge Words: remember feather

Math: Math packet found in folders.

Writing: We are continuing our young Author's project. During the month of March students will have a writing project to complete. We will celebrate in April with an author's tea after school!

Step 3: Due March 23rd..

Turn in writing with illustrations and About the Author page. The author's page will be the last page in the book and should include information about themselves such as: interests, family, age, grade, hobbies, and a picture.
