What we are working on

Reading: Students read a nonfiction text about dinosaurs. Then identified how scientists have learned new information about dinosaurs over time and what information scientists continue to learn.

Skills: This week student's focused on -ing and -ed endings.

Writing: Writers worked hard this week to compile their research into their note-takers. Writers then began to plan their biography pieces.

Math: Mathematicians continued working on the repeated addition algorithms. They also used arrays to identify even and odd numbers.

Science: Scientists continued to discriminate between volume and pitch. They also, tested volume and pitch through building a nail-chime.

Homework

Reading Logs: Reading Logs are due: Friday, 4/29

Students should continue to read and visit the AR website to practice Math Facts in a Flash...
