What we are working on

Reading: To wrap up the year, the students will be collaborating to read and perform fairy tales. They will acknowledge differences in the points of view of characters, including by speaking in a different voice for each character when reading dialogue aloud.

Writing: Writers composed a life cycle paragraph using transitions such as to begin, after _____ days, and finally.

Math: Mathematicians used attributes to identify and draw different shapes.

Social Studies: Students identified and located geographic features on a physical map.

Homework

Reading Logs: Reading Logs are due: Wednesday, 5/25

Students should continue to read and visit the AR website to practice Math Facts in a Flash...
